By air:

Stansted Airport is approximately 30 minutes drive south of Cambridge, at Junction 8 of the M11. Take the M11 north to Cambridge, following the directions far right.

London Heathrow Airport is approximately 75 miles south-west of Cambridge. Heathrow has direct rail links with central London. If travelling by road, join the M25 and travel clockwise. Exit at junction 27 and take the M11 north to Cambridge, following the directions far right.

By rail:

Cambridge is approximately 45 minutes by train from London King's Cross or Liverpool Street. St John's Innovation Centre is approximately 15 minutes from the station by car.

By road from Cambridge:

When driving from Cambridge railway station or through Cambridge, follow signs north for the A10 to Ely. Once on the Milton Road (A1309) look out for the entrance to the Science Park on your left and move into the centre lane. Take a right turn, which is directed across the dual carriage way, into Cowley Road. Turn left into Cowley Road and St John's Innovation is the third group of buildings on the left.

By road from the M11 Northbound:

Take junction 14 off the M11 and head east on the A14 towards Newmarket. Take the second exit off the A14 (junction 33) and at the roundabout, take the right exit, sign-posted to Cambridge the B1309 and Science Park. (This is also Milton Road). Move into or stay in the left hand lane and move into a left lane which feeds you, left again, to the entrance of Cowley Road. Turn left again into Cowley Road and St John's Innovation is the second group of buildings on the left.
